Detailed description: This image contains a simplified guitar transcription of the song 'Seven Nation Army' by The White Stripes. The music is written on a single staff in 4/4 time. The first section, labeled 'Verse', consists of 12 measures. The first four measures are whole rests, followed by four measures of a power chord (G2, B2, D3) and four measures of a power chord (F2, A2, C3). The second section, labeled 'Chorus', consists of 12 measures. The first two measures are whole notes (G2, B2), the next two are quarter notes (G2, B2), and the final eight measures are quarter notes (G2, B2, D3, F2). The third section, labeled 'Verse', consists of 12 measures, identical to the first section. The fourth section, labeled 'Chorus', consists of 12 measures, identical to the second section. The transcription uses a simplified notation where notes are represented by stems and dots, and chords by stems and dots with a slash. The guitar part is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb).
